Notes

[1] Less cost in comparison to the average retail price of Original HP 61 Ink Cartridges.

[2] Requires an Internet connection to an HP web-enabled printer and HP ePrint account registration. For a list of eligible printers, supported documents and image types, and other HP ePrint details, see hpconnected.com. Mobile devices and PCs require Internet connection and email capability. May require wireless access point. Separately purchased data plans or usage fees may apply. Print times and connection speeds may vary.

[3] Based on IDC's Worldwide Quarterly Hardcopy Peripherals Tracker®, 2012 Q4. Shipments for inkjet single-function printers and multifunction printers, including production units.

[4] Requires a wireless access point and an Internet connection to the printer. Services require registration. Availability varies by country, language, and agreements, and may require a firmware upgrade. HP Printables may not be available on all printer models, and not all apps can be set up for automatic delivery. For details, see hpconnected.com.

[5] Mobile device requires wireless access point and Internet connection. Features controlled may vary by mobile device operating system. Scan/copy control requires mobile device and printer be on the same wireless network or through wireless direct connection to printer. For more details, see hp.com/go/mobileprinting.

[6] HP Auto Wireless Connect may not be available for all system configurations. Wireless performance is dependent on physical environment and distance from access point. Wireless operations are compatible with 2.4 GHz routers only. For information on compatibility, visit hp.com/go/wirelessprinting.

[7] Program availability varies. Original HP cartridge return and recycling is currently available in more than 48 countries, territories, and regions in Asia, Europe, and North and South America through the HP Planet Partners program. For more information, visit hp.com/recycle.

[8] Wireless access point or Internet connection may be required, not included. Local printing requires mobile device and printer to be on the same network. Remote printing requires an Internet connection to HP web-enabled printer and HP ePrint account registration. Wireless performance is dependent upon physical environment and distance from access point. Wireless operations are compatible with 2.4 GHz routers only. See hp.com/go/mobileprinting for more details.

[9] Local printing requires mobile device and printer to be on the same wireless network or have a direct wireless connection. Wireless performance is dependent on physical environment and distance from access point. Wireless operations are compatible with 2.4 GHz operations only. Remote printing requires an Internet connection to an HP web-connected printer. App or software and HP ePrint account registration may also be required. Wireless broadband use requires separately purchased service contract for mobile devices. Check with service provider for coverage and availability in your area. See hp.com/go/mobileprinting for more details.

[10] Google™ and Gmail are trademarks of Google Inc.; feature requires Google Cloud Print Ready printer or existing printer connected to a PC with Internet access. Print times may vary. Currently only Google apps are supported.

[11] Mobile device must be wireless-enabled. Wireless performance is dependent on physical environment and distance from access point. Feature may require driver or apps. For more details, see hp.com/go/wirelessprinting.

[12] Wireless performance is dependent on physical environment and distance from access point. Wireless operations are compatible with 2.4 GHz routers only.

[13] Either after first page or after first set of ISO test pages. For details see hp.com/go/printerclaims.

[14] Power requirements are based on the country/region where the printer is sold. Do not convert operating voltages. This will damage the printer and void the product warranty.

[15] Approximate yield. Actual yield depends on printer and specific use. See hp.com/go/pageyield for more information.
